SEPTEMBER 2011
All times are for ET

9/1 This may be an idyllic morning, which can be lovely with a special partner or to simply enjoy the beauty around you. You may be particularly sensitive to sound, since its nuances amplify. You may be surprised by music you'd never heard before even if it is familiar. The moon is VOC* from 1:35 to 2:48 pm. Once the moon enters Scorpio, the mood can radically change. People read between the lines of every conversation, but not necessarily with astute comprehension. The results can lead to suspicion or revelatory discussions, depending on the relationships. This is a good time to weigh the facts but don't launch into any immediate action.

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Libra, enjoy a museum, music, dance. It may be lovely to be with someone you love as long as you don't initiate any major discussions.*

9/2 This is a good day for research and to stick to a job you want to finish. You may have too many choices on what to do this morning, but once a decision is made your focus can be excellent. This is not the best day for a new enterprise, but opportunities may present themselves for action in the future. Plan to spend time with people you enjoy in the later part of the day for pure pleasure.

9/3 You have to ask yourself if it's worth the battle. As the therapist Melinda Martin says: "do you want to be right or in a relationship?" You have to decide what's worth holding your ground and what justifies compromise. What is not acceptable is feeling victimized... for either party. You might also find yourself struggling to grasp a concept or actualize a goal. There are times when it's better to put it to rest for awhile, and this might be one of them. Meditate or propel yourself in an activity with concrete results, like a well-rehearsed workout or creative project. The moon is VOC* from 3:42 pm to 5:03 pm. When the moon enters Sagittarius, the mood lifts considerably. Great night to party, dance or eat in an exotic locale. If you speak a language other than English, do!

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Scorpio, you may find a lost object when you clean or if you're trying to finish something up you may have trouble ending it.... might be better to curl up with a mystery, if possible.*

9/4 When the moon is in Sagittarius, fire and air types tend to burn with enthusiasm. Nonetheless, toes get stepped on when the dancing gets frenzied. Although you may experience (or be the recipient of) "foot in mouth" disease, a quick recovery can let it roll off the back. This is actually a great day for communicating, even though there may be some bruising along the way. If we tread too lightly, we may never get there. This is not an excuse for insensitivity, but if you do make a mistake let good intention be your compass. When your feathers get ruffled, clearly articulate your needs. Resolution and understanding occur when there is a willingness to share.

9/5 This is an exuberant day to enjoy life and nature. Blessed are the travelers open to new experience or the lover of the outdoors who finds her/himself in a beautiful location. The senses are heightened, so colors and sounds can seem hallucinogenically intense. Amazing day for sports, travel and conversations of the higher mind. The moon is VOC* from 8:31 to 10:03 pm. If you're coming home for U.S. Labor Day weekend, use your GPS even if you know the way, because you'll be talking or reliving the day's events and you could miss a turn.

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Sagittarius you may want to explore but don't expect to* find anything... keep your eye on the gas tank if you go for a long ramble.

9/6 This is another challenging month when the moon is in Capricorn or any of the cardinal signs (Cancer, Aries, Libra). You may have had a restless sleep; whether you keep a dream journal regularly or not, it's sometimes useful to jot down images from a dream so you can turn over and think about it in the morning. Even if in the morning it looks like jibberish, the habit is useful if your subconscious allows you to return to sleep. Regardless of how well you slept, today is a powerhouse of demands and activities. It is not advisable to overextend nor to initiate a new activity. In the early morning, make a list of priorities and put one foot in front of the other and move along. This way you'll be somewhat satisfied with the results by the end of the day. Keep aware that good leads may come your way; store them for a better day for action.

9/7 Similar energy to yesterday but with more flow. Don't be deceived into thinking it's good to begin a new enterprise however, unless you're ready for it to be an ongoing battle. It's better to gather and sit on it until the winds change to be on your back. Do the business at hand and shelve the new start for later. The moon is VOC* from 4:35 to the next morning.

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Capricorn, organizing and filing is like a well-oiled clock. You might also like to garden or finish up some loose ends from work.*

9/8 The moon enters Aquarius at 5:42 am, jogging the wired into early rising. Seriously, this is a highly productive day for electronic communications, humanitarian efforts and community networks. Start the new overtures for connecting AFTER 11:30 am, to skate by any communication mishaps. Keep a notebook or ipad handy for sudden insight or inspirations. Get out of the house, shake hands and make eye contact or do it virtually. Initiate or participate in big plans for great changes on a large scale.

9/9 Mercury enters detail-oriented Virgo, which can help clean up any messes left over from last month's retrograde. The ability to align yourself with capable people is strong, as is the ability to find those qualities in yourself. Take on tasks that give you a big picture satisfaction. This is a great party weekend, so fill your calendar with people and situations that matter to you.

9/10 Powerful morning for meditation and visualization. If you don't have one yet, it's time to create a vision board. You can do it on your desktop if you don't have the wall space. Taking time to reflect today gives you fuel for your manifestation muscle. The moon is VOC* from 1:32 to 3:26 pm. It enters the sign of Pisces after that which changes the tone to one of deeper expression of feelings. You may cry suddenly watching a commercial. Or the weather may change and you remember we are on the threshold of the 10th anniversary of 9/11. It may be hard to express what you feel, but trying is 90% of communicating. Verbal expression is not the deepest way of relating; if you feel out of your comfort zone, find a harbor in a friend's arms, rent a beloved film or go to a beautiful vista to contemplate.

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course:... in Aquarius you are apt to get caught up in a discussion or a cause which has no resolution. This is an excellent time to visit with friends or bounce around ideas, for pure recreation. If you're trying to solve a problem, you can connect the dots much more effectively once the moon enters Pisces.*

9/11 The Pisces moon indicates a beautiful poignancy for the 10th anniversary of the World Trade Disaster. This is not a day for rhetoric but for reflection. Well-meaning overtures for healing or going-forward are not as effective as simple being. In other words, listening is more powerful than any attempt to detail a plan. Showing up at an event that mirrors your mood and being in the moment may be subtle but magnify in ways you can only guess. Powerful day for creativity, meditation, prayer and active imagination. The time for direct action is another day.

9/12 . The Harvest Full Moon in Pisces occurs at 5:27 am. The Sabian symbol for the moon is “A Table Set For An Evening Meal” The sun’s symbol is: “A Caravan Of Cars Headed To The West Coast” The picture in my mind of balancing those two images seems like a lovely marriage after the energy ignited by the preceding new moon. As Americans rethink our collective consciousness of what feeds a nation, the “setting” of a generation’s reverence for fast food at the cost of biological integrity is giving way to healthier alternatives. In the United States, the west coast has been the forerunner of the organic, vegetarian and locavore lifestyles. The other thought is the caravan of cars morphing into more energy-efficient models as they head west. Yet, there is also a tug of war in an image that shows a set table and another that shows a “wagon train”. As an individual, you are asked how you balance a home routine with the desire to seek and strive. Full moons are about culmination and completion. Do you feel these forces are reconciled in your life? If not, is there an adjustment you can make to feel a sense of resolution at this time.

Highly perceptive morning for writers and communicators. Whether or not this is your profession, if you have a thought, jot it down. This may give you the insight to go forward with a concept that you’ve been unable to put in motion. Don’t be afraid to disagree; the real enemy is avoiding the conversation... but it might be better to have it tomorrow. The moon is VOC* from 9:45 pm until the next morning. **Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Pisces, creativity may be high, if one is already in the midst of a project. Inspiration is more fluid than electric. This is also an excellent time to meditate and do conscious prayerwork or volunteer activities.*

9/13 You may wake up inspired and race into action with this morning’s electric Aries moon. However the brakes can slam by midday as power struggles or emotional demands cramp the momentum. This need not derail your long term goal unless you succumb to an early defeat. Consider this an opportunity to better understand the potential blocks in a situation so that you’re prepared. If your purpose is motivated by your Higher Self, you can succeed. If it’s not, it’s time to reevaluate and change course. Make time for outlets to burn steam and exercise.

9/14 It’s important to operate with integrity in any business dealings or relationship issues. You may butt heads with authority today or feel as though an institution is challenging your individual rights. Compromise is possible but only if you’re willing to eradicate the gridlock. Communication increases later in the day; you may receive auspicious news from a sibling or neighbor. Venus enters Libra in the evening, beginning a cycle that emphasizes diplomacy, negotiation and harmonious relating..

9/15 Avoid confrontation in the morning; people are not at their most rational. Arguments can be immature and hurtful. Nonetheless, an ability to make peace and see the big picture can prevail. There is tremendous energy to mend fences, especially in the early afternoon. The moon is VOC* from 1:11 to 3:25 pm.

When the moon enters Taurus, you may experience a sense of landing on your two feet. Energy moves from your head to the rest of your body and you can feel grounded, more focused or even lethargic. This can be a terrific time to channel any prior frustration into conscious action... not necessarily right at this moment, but over the next couple of days. Be sure to chew on it over a leisurely dinner. **Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Aries, do some movement- either exercise, walk or drive... because the desire to move forward can be thwarted by the VOC. If you’re going somewhere new make sure you have clear directions and a map because fast movement can miss turns.*

9/16 This is a powerhouse day for focus and application. Don’t enter into any agreements lightly, because you will be in the contract for the duration. Today bodes well for enterprises with purposeful intent. Pluto stations direct, which brings secrets, subterfuge and revelations to the surface over the next couple of months. If you're ready to purge, fasten your seat belt. If you're not ready to purge, this is not an optional ride so prepare yourself, especially if you're a Capricorn, Aries, Libra or Cancer.

9/17 A picture between Venus and Uranus in the morning may lead to an impulsive purchase or tryst. Depending on your situation you'll either want to avoid this or embrace it. Another possibility is an unusual dream or a moment of surprising artistic expression. This is another great day to stick to a vision or concentrate on an idea. Enjoy the company of people who love to live in the beauty of life. Get outdoors and breathe deeply.

9/18 The moon is VOC* from 3:09 am to 4:06 am. Once the moon enters Gemini, wheels start spinning.... More of them. It's as though an upright bicycle suddenly morphs into a line of racing cyclists. This is a high-energy day where a lot can be accomplished, especially if you map out the tasks beforehand to maximize your efforts. A convivial day with community or a coming-together for a common goal; communication is the key. Even though differences of opinion may assert themselves, especially over money or who wields the power, resolution is possible when the higher goal is maintained. Mars enters Leo which begins a cycle of more dramatic presentations and creative expression. Use this to your advantage, when making your point even if you feel you are play-acting. Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Taurus, relaxation is demanded. You can try to accomplish a big task, but that couch looks awfully inviting. Give in and let yourself enjoy a leisurely lunch and your productivity will increase afterwards.

9/19 A useful day to connecting with siblings or neighbors on a joint project, especially anything to do with education or transit. Communication hitches can worked through, see them as clearing-houses rather than obstacles. When in doubt, sleep on it. Get a new perspective by taking a walk or drive.

9/20 If you feel at a crossroads, especially in the morning, get your mind off it. The more you try to solve it in the head, the less obtainable the answer. Meditate, swim, dance, skate, go to a museum or make art. Once you're involved in the quiet that comes from suspending the brain, suddenly you'll know absolutely what you couldn't logic out. The moon is VOC from 12:34 to 2:53 pm. When the moon is in Cancer, it brings in a sense of returning to home and to roots. This could be a familial response or a simple need to nest and recharge. People can be short-tempered and irrational this evening, so try not to take things personally. If you're the one feeling as though you're short-circuiting, you might want to find a place to do it privately. The positive piece about this process is it brings up grievances and any sense of injustice. The negative is that if you come from a place of disjointed emotion, you may not be clear as to what you're saying and why. It is far better to initiate any important conversation or contracts Thursday for the best results or tomorrow if you can't wait. Plug in a comfort film or have some comfort food. Go to a body of water and reflect. Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Gemini, conversations can be particularly misunderstood; avoid important correspondence or phone calls. Great time to clean out old emails and tidy up your desktop.

9/21 Opportunities sail by in the morning so grab the ones that interest you. Activation of the opportunity may be more complicated than it looks on the surface, but you can still make it all work beautifully with persistence. The moon in Cancer begs for a slower pace, to be considerate of your body's needs especially with food and rest. A perfect recharge is to sit by a fountain at lunch or take an evening stroll where you can see water.

9/22 Very effective day for connecting or initiating a project, especially one that involves finances or real estate. The morning shows excellent communications and parties coming together over the long run. You might want to call a family member and if you can't, someone who feels like family. The moon is VOC* for a blink, from 9:22 to 9:55 pm. Once it enters Leo, the desire to party increases for some so if this is your inclination and you can be out mid-week, have fun. If not, watch a program that gives you a sense of drama.

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Cancer, be by the water, time with family or sifting through memorabilia. Lovely time to enjoy a picnic or meal with no time constraints.*

9/23 The Sun enters Libra at 5:05 am; the day of the Autumnal Equinox. Coupled with a Mars/Uranus picture, this is a day of action and impulse. Not all people will be in perfect alignment, but if you position yourself with those who have the commitment to go the distance you will not be disappointed. This is a day of high drama and lots of raised voices; choose to position yourself with those singing harmony and not creating discord. The winners are those who build relationships with integrity.

9/24 After yesterday's intensity, today feels like a low hum. It is important to express your individual needs within the community, no matter how alienating that feels. You are not alone, we all feel separate and yet we all our one; it is one of the many contradictions of the human condition. That being said, there are times when this strangeness is emphasized and today may feel like one of those days. If you keep in mind it's a feeling and like clouds, it will pass, you will be able to move through it with more grace. This may be happening to you or you witness it in someone else.

This is a wonderful day to see a performance or go to a party. The moon is VOC* at 10:40 pm until the next morning. It's probably best to head home before then or you may stay out later than you would like. You'll be grateful in the morning if you do this.

**Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Leo, you do well to play: window-shop, go to a museum or performance, flirt, make some artwork.*

9/25 The moon enters Virgo at 12:49 am . This is an excellent morning to clean, organize or plan out an exercise or diet. You could start today, but the results will be even better if you hold off until the new moon on the 27th. The moon goes VOC* at 3:47 pm. Mercury enters Libra this evening, starting a cycle of increased pros and cons in discussion. You might find yourself in a disruptive conversation or sudden upset; keep in mind you will have far better results addressing this in a couple of days than trying to resolve anything tonight.

9/26 The moon is VOC* all day. This is virtual heaven for website maven Suzanne Bird-Harris. She finds these concentrated voids to be gold for focus and plowing through projects already in motion. **Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Virgo, it's great for organizing, finessing a project or exercise routine and clearing out closets.*

9/27 The Libra New Moon occurs at 7:09 am. Every New Moon offers a chance to start afresh and in Libra the focus is relationships. Other themes are balance, the arts, negotiation and creating harmony. All relationships are effected: romantic, business and work partnerships, familial, close friendships and the enemies you know you have. Since Venus is the planet linked to Libra, her position in the sky today is important. She is in Libra and in line with Saturn, indicating a work ethic orientation to relationship. Saturn is considered very strong in Libra (the ancients called this position "exalted") because longevity and effectiveness in relating does take work.

So often people ask me about their "soul mate" and have a longing for intimate relationship which is understandable. But the bottom line is relationships do require commitment and application to work. This New Moon you are asked to look at your relationships, whichever area of life they may be. Which ones are working for you? Which ones are "dead wood"? Do you have an enemy that you might be able to turn into an ally? Is there someone who drives you crazy, that you could look at differently? Is it time to read Harville Hendricks "Getting the Love You Want" with your spouse? Is it time to write a list of all the attributes you'd like in a romantic partner as well as a list of what you're willing to give in that kind of relationship?

The point is, New Moons grant us an opportunity to focus on what we'd like to create in that area of life. A written list or letter to yourself is a way of planting seeds of intention. Since Libra is an air sign, it lifts the spirit to communicate to yourself verbally. So light a candle today and vision what you'd like to have happen in relationship. But do it carefully and consciously, because with Uranus in the mix, you will get what you ask for but something is going to surprise you.

The Sabian symbol for this moon is: "Around A Campfire A Group Of Young People Sit In Spiritual Communion". This is a reminder that another relationship is the one you have with your conscience. Is there a cause or community you hold close to your heart but haven't found the time to take action? Many individuals are coming together nowadays in ways that will forge a dynamic tomorrow. Once you leave your house, be ready for serendipity and change because it is all around you.

9/28 A terrific day to initiate a project, especially one that joins forces with another. Scrutinize documents or engage in provocative conversation in the morning to iron out any wrinkles. People want to make synergistic connections. Any legal contract is well positioned, especially late morning onward. Enjoy an evening of dance, music and creative conversations. The moon goes VOC* at 9:52 pm.

Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Libra, enjoy a museum, music, dance. It may be lovely to be with someone you love as long as you don't initiate any major discussions.

9/29 After yesterday's flow, today's Scorpio moon may set a slower pace. There is a tremendous ability to relate deeply to another, especially for those willing to listen. This is more one-on-one relating than laughter in a crowd. Excellent day for therapeutic work or decisions with investments. Hold off any major decisions until October, but you can get to the root of a problem today. You may feel there is not enough love or money, so make judicious choices on how to work through this. Looking clear-eyed at a situation is the start of changing it.

9/30 Similar to yesterday's energy. Plow through a project in the works that requires focus and application. You may prefer a quiet evening at home rather than a party, but if you find yourself at one, the odds are people syphon off into clusters of intense conversations. The moon is VOC* at 10:18 pm. **Moon VOC/Void-of-Course... in Scorpio, you may find a lost object when you clean or if you're trying to finish something up you may have trouble ending it.... might be better to curl up with a mystery, if possible.*
